A Louisville negro sentenced for three years remarked: "That's easy: I can stand on my head that length of time."

While it is admitted that the work of redeeming the revenue stamps has been much decreased by the rule that not less than $2 worth will be considered, many people fail to see the justice of such a ruling. Two dollars, of course, is nothing to a bank or a rich corporation, but these are the very people who have more than that value on hand. Those who have less than $2 worth are for the most part people who need the money. Moreover, there is a good deal of protest against the rules adopted to prevent any one from buying up these stamps and having them redeemed in larger lots. Such a rule seems to be a refinement of meanness.

Everyday on our streets may be seen young men who are floundering about ignorant of a trade or profession and no idea of business training. These are mostly men eminently capable of learning whatever they would set their heads to learn, but they are just loafing their time away, stunting their mental capacities by disuse until soon they will find themselves adrift in a busy world with no knowledge of any business, trade or profession, and their only support for a living will be a chance day's labor. Parents who neglect their boy's business training and fail to prepare him for an active place in the world, are laying up for themselves a heavy share of blame and malediction.

A man is never poor when he has good health, the ability to eat three square meals a day, and is the owner of a home, ever so humble, and out of debt. If in that home there be those who love him and look for his coming when the toils of the day is ended, then is he rich—possessor of treasures which the millionaire cannot purchase if he be denied them.—Ex.

A young volunteer who served his time in the Philippines, vividly describes our oriental jewels thus: "The Filipinos are a bunch of trouble gathered together on the western horizon of uncivilization. They are bounded on the north by rocks and destruction, on the east by typhoons, on the south by cannibals and earthquakes, on the west by hoodoos and smugglers. The soil is extraordinarily fertile, producing large crops of insurrection and trickery. The climate is pleasant and healthful for scorpions, centipedes, snakes and alligators. The principal exports are rice, hemp, sick soldiers and war bulletins. The principal imports are American soldiers, arms, ammunition, coffins beer and tobacco."

Litigation over the consolidation of Central University, of Richmond, and Centre College, of Danville has begun. Suit has been filed by the heirs of Mrs. Rebecca Shearer for $3,000. Mrs. Shearer gave $1,000 to the erection fund of the University and another amount the interest of which has been used in educating young men of that county. The fund has now reached the amount sued for, and the heirs claim they are entitled to it as the object for which it was given has been thwarted by the removal of the University.

The young man who knows how to lay off corn and potato rows, and to regulate the distance of the same so as to get the crops, is worth a cow pen full of nice, kid gloved, fancy overcoated fellows who know how to lead a fashionable waltz. Setting a plow just right and adjusting the gears so that backs and shoulders of the horses will never hurt, are worth a thousand fold more to the country than knowing how to pose in the parlor. Yes, and a girl who can bake a loaf of bread and make a sweet roll of butter is worth a whole seminary of those soft hand angels who sit in the "pallah" and let their "mas" do the kitchen work.—Ex.

Spencer Cooper, publisher and editor of the Hazel Green Herald, and a veteran newspaper man is getting out one of the best country newspapers we ever read. Notwithstanding his ceaseless and untiring efforts to build up his town, he is not patronized by a single home merchant with an advisement. Seems like they are willing for this enterprising publisher to do it all in the way of upbuilding their town. It is truly hard for a paper to exist without advertising patronage from home people, and Editor Cooper certainly deserves a better patronage from the business men of Hazel Green than he is getting.

4th of July Fight.

At a Fourth of July dance at Morehead, Hugh Davis, of Morgan county, was fatally shot by a man named Flannery, of Elliott county. Davis was carried to the Osborne Hotel. Howard Moore, of Bath county, was stationed at the door to keep the crowd back and words passed between him and Fin Tolliver. Tolliver drew a knife and stabbed Moore in the abdomen, inflicting a serious wound. Both of the wounded men are in a critical condition.

A Large Fish.

While Tuck Sowers, of Madison county was fishing in Kentucky river, a few days ago, he hung a monster fish on a trot line. It pulled the skiff up and down the river for several hundred yards. Finally, the fish being worried, came to the surface and floated for awhile. As Sowers made the attempt to haul it into the boat, it flounced about, breaking the trot line and escaped. It was of the sturgeon variety, and looked to be fully seven feet long.

Saturday about noon a light shower fell after which there was a considerable drop in temperature, affording great relief for both man and beasts.

Miss Nora Patterson, of Millersburg, will teach the school at Kimbrell's Chapel beginning July 15. Miss Nora taught a successful spring term in that district this spring.

Rev. and Mrs. D. P. Ware, of West Bend, passed here Tuesday on their way to Madison county to visit the latter's relatives. They gave our office a pleasant call during their stop over in town.

Some dastardly and cowardly scoundrel or scoundrels some time during the past week shot through each of the three east windows of the Methodist church. What a pity justice can not be meted out to the guilty parties to the fullest measure.

Lowest prices when values are considered. That's how you best judge this store's usefulness. We've built up a business on the basis of "more goods for the same money; the same goods for less money." Mrs. J. W. Williams, Clay City, Ky.

At Panola July 4, B. M. Kindred shot and instantly killed George Garrett. He is in jail at Richmond, and his little nine-year-old son has been placed in jail also on the charge of assisting his father in the murder.

The Best Liniment for Strains.

Mr. H. F. Wells, the merchant at Deer Park, Long Island, N. Y. says: "I always recommend Chamberlain's Pain Balm as the best liniment for strains. I used it last winter for severe lameness in the side, resulting from a strain, and was greatly pleased with the quick relief and cure it effected." For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.

A. G. Sexton, a carpenter of Lexington, ran a small splinter under his finger nail. Blood poison set in and killed him. His remains were taken to College Hill, his former home, for burial.

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by J. W. Dawson & Bro. and Morgan McKinney.

Two Police Judges for Jackson.

During Police Judge J. L. Noble's long absence from Jackson his office was declared vacant, and Judge C. X. Bowling was appointed in his stead. Noble has returned and set up claim to the office. Thus Jackson has two Police Judges.

A Cup of Good Coffee

To get a really good cup of coffee you'll have to start back of the actual making; you'll have to look to the roasting and the grinding. In ARBUCKLES' you have a coffee that's scientifically roasted, and delivered to you with all the pores of the berry hermetically sealed. You're sure of a good cup of coffee because all the coffee flavor and aroma are kept intact until you want it. The fame of ARBUCKLES' induced other coffee packers to put out imitations of it. These imitations cost the grocer (and you) a cent a pound less than ARBUCKLES'. But don't be tempted to buy a package of some other coffee when you can get for it is actually less expensive than the cheap kind; goes further—besides being better flavored, more satisfying.

You will find a list of useful articles in each package of Arbuckles' Coffee. A definite part of one of these articles becomes yours when you buy the coffee. The one you select from the list will be sent you on condition that you send to our Notion Department a certain number of signatures cut from the wrappers.

LAXAKOLA

THE GREAT TONIC LAXATIVE

If you have sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, bad breath, dizziness, inactive liver, heartburn, kidney troubles, backache, loss of appetite, insomnia, lack of energy, bad blood, blotched or muddy skin, or any symptoms and disorders which tell the story of bad bowels and an impaired digestive system, Laxakola Will Cure You.

It will clean out the bowels, stimulate the liver and kidneys, strengthen the mucous membranes of the stomach, purify your blood and put you "on your feet" again. Your appetite will return, your bowels move regularly, your liver and kidneys cease to trouble you, your skin will clear and freshen and you will feel the old time energy and buoyancy.

Mothers seeking the proper medicine to give their little ones for constipation, diarrhea, colic and similar troubles, will find Laxakola an ideal medicine for children. It keeps their bowels regular without pain or griping, acts as a general tonic, assists nature, aids digestion, relieves restlessness, clears the coated tongue, reduces fever, causes refreshing, restful sleep and makes them well, happy and hearty. Children like it and ask for it.
